This NJ ACE Coordinating Center is funded by the New Jersey Governor's Council for Medical Research and Treatment of Autism, New Jersey Department of Health.

The NJ ACE was established under P.L.2007, c.168. Pursuant to P.L. 2007, c.168, the NJ ACE was charged to conduct basic and clinical research into the cause, diagnosis, early detection, prevention, control and treatment of autism, including research in the fields of developmental neurobiology, genetics, psychopharmacology, neuroimaging, immunology, infectious diseases, gastroenterology and endocrinology. The CC-MSU coordinates these research efforts.
